

I am appalled that Sinclair
Broadcasting can force their stations
to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.

Airing propaganda
as "news" and using the power of the
airwaves to smear
one political candidate and blatantly promote
another is a new low
and a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Is it any wonder
that the credibility
of today's news
media is in question. We have the greatest country
in the world, but we are at danger of losing our
"democracy," as the
big money interests
are able to force
the broadcast of their one-sided
political broadcast
across the public
airwaves free of charge.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
